A Trip to the Art Collections of Washington D.C.

Featuring visits to the Phillips Collection and the National Gallery of Art with an optional side trip to the Corcoran Art Museum

Sponsored by the Hanover Area Arts Guild

Saturday, June 2, 2012 7:30 AM- 6:30 PM

Tickets: $62 (includes museum admission and driver gratuity)

The Phillips Collection is home to a world-renowned collection of works from the Impressionist period of art up through the modernist era. The National Gallery of Art is home to masterpieces from throughout art history, from Rembrandt to Andy Warhol. Each of these museums is like a stroll through an art history book, and everyone is sure to find their favorite artists on display. If any members of the group are interested, Eric Miller will lead a side excursion to visit the Corcoran Art Museum, another of Washington's treasures. Please note that the Corcoran charges an admission fee of $10 ($8 for seniors over 62 and students 18 and under.) This is not included in the price of the trip. Lunch will be on your own.

SCHEDULE

- 7:30 Meet the bus at the Big Lots parking lot (on Carlisle Street, formerly Value City).
- 7:40 After receiving some information from the trip sponsor and the driver, we depart.
- 10:00 We arrive at the Phillips Collection. Tour the Collection (self-guided). You may also choose to have lunch at the café here. If so, please plan to finish by 12:30.
- 12:30 The bus picks up our group at the Phillips, and transports us to the National Gallery of Art. Lunch is also available in the National Gallery cafeteria and in other nearby museums on the National Mall.
- 4:00 The bus picks us up in front of the National Gallery and leaves for Hanover.
- 6:30 We return to Hanover, give or take a few minutes.

Please make checks payable to the Hanover Area Arts Guild. Return this form by Monday, April 30, with your full payment, to: The Hanover Area Arts Guild, 32 Carlisle Street, Hanover, PA 17331. Payments are non-refundable, unless the trip is cancelled by the sponsor, in which case checks will be promptly returned. Your participation in this event will help us raise valuable funds to continue to fulfill our mission as the active center for visual arts in Hanover. We thank you for your support!

----- cut here and return with your payment by April 30th. Thank you! -----
